

Gender Queer Stand-Up

Please stand or identify silently if:

- You have gotten stares or comments because people can't guess your gender
- You have been told you can't use the bathroom because of gender
- You have been told you were shopping "in the wrong section"
- You have been harassed by the police because of gender presentation
- You have been called by a pronoun that is not your choice
- Parents are scared of letting you near their children because of sexuality or gender identity
- You or someone you know has/have been beaten up because of gender
- You have wanted to hurt yourself because gender doesn't match that proscribed by society
- People have questioned your role in youth development because of gender identity or sexuality
- You have been asked if you are a man or a woman repeatedly even after explaining your identity
- You have been refused service or medical treatment because of gender or sexual orientation
- You have been refused shelter services because of gender expression or sexual orientation
