

Introduction for Dr. Maura J. Cullen

Dr. Maura Cullen is widely considered one of the nation's foremost authorities on diversity issues on college campuses today. With over 25 years of experience as a trainer and keynote speaker, she received her doctorate in Social Justice and Diversity Education from the University of Massachusetts.

Maura is the founder of the Diversity Student Summit, a founding faculty member of the Social Justice Training Institute and author of, 35 Dumb Things Well-Intended People Say.

When not at home in Maryland, you will most likely find Maura in the Green Mountain state of Vermont, hiking or snowshoeing with her family and dog. Maura's adventures have included skydiving, ice climbing, swimming with dolphins and fire-walking!

You can visit Maura at TheDiversitySpeaker.com or friend her on Facebook.

(Please notify Dr. Cullen in advance of any changes you may wish to make to this introduction.)